

The Swiss Association for www.accl.ch | www.facebook.com/accl-award Compliance and Competition Law (ACCL) honours in cooperation with AGON Partners annually the best Bachelor and Master theses written at a Swiss university or university of applied sciences in the area of competition law or competition economics with the ACCL Bachelor Award and ACCL Master Award.

Theses must be submitted by October 15th 2022 to Dr. Daniel Schiess: daniel.schiess@accl.ch

PRIZE

ACCL Bachelor Award (equivalent appr. CHF 1'000.-):

Free attendance to six Compliance in Excellence Events

Free ACCL-Membership (2 years)

ACCL Master Award (equivalent appr. CHF 4'500.-):

Free tuition for the CAS International Competition Law & Compliance

Free ACCL-Membership (2 years)

AWARD CEREMONY

The prizes will be awarded during an event.

JURY

The evaluation will be made by a jury composed of experts in the area of competition law and competition economics:

Prof. Dr. Blaise Carron (UNINE)

Dr. Jürg Borer (Borer Attorneys at Law)

Prof. Dr. Simon Evenett (UNISG)

Prof. Dr. Jens Lehne (ZHAW)

Prof. Dr. Rudolf Minsch (economiesuisse)

Dr. Olivier Schaller (WEKO)

TERMS AND CONDITIONS: The ACCL considers Bachelor and Master Theses in the field of competition law or competition economics that stand out by their scientific and practical relevance. The theses must have been successfully submitted at a Swiss university or university of applied sciences in the academic year 2021/2022.

